

Supplementary Figure 1. Three-dimensional maximum intensity projection (MIP) of a colorectal cancer metastasis during the wash-in phase (first 10 frames). The right image represents a B-mode of the same lesion center cross-section. White arrows indicate the same boundaries of the lesion in both the MIP and B-mode images. Blue arrows point to lesion feeding vessels that are first to fill with contrast.

Supplementary Figure 1:

